A message to share from NH DHHS – BDAS:

The current COVID-19 public health crisis is stressful for all. You are not alone. Everyone is feeling some level of anxiety and discomfort right now. It is normal to feel this way. If you or a loved one have struggled with anxiety, other mental health concerns or substance use disorder, this may be an even more difficult time for you.

Mental Health and Substance Use support services and treatment are available to you even during the state of emergency.

You can call 2-1-1 to be directed to help.

If you are already connected to a treatment or recovery support provider, stay in touch with them. All Doorways are open and available to connect you to substance use disorder resources. To find your local Doorway, go to thedoorway.nh.gov, or call 211.

- Call 211 to be connected to help
- National Suicide Prevention Lifeline 800-273-8255
- Disaster Distress Helpline 800-985-5990

For more behavioral health resources during COVID-19, go to the NH COVID-19 web site.
